

Voici la correction !

Les superlatifs.

Exercice N°1 - Choisissez la bonne réponse :

1. He arrived later than I expected.
2. The latter part of the movie is more interesting than the former part.
3. I have an elder brother.
4. Sam is older than Katty by three years.
5. Kenny is the eldest of my brother's four sons.
6. I can't walk any farther / further .
7. I prefer the latter painting to the former.
8. No further explanation was given.
9. The latest movie from Spielberg is very good.
10. The last Mayor was a very nice guy.
11. This is the nearest supermarket to my house.
12. The post office is next to my house.
13. He is the elder of the two brothers.
14. The oldest building in town is the Library.

Voici la correction !

Les superlatifs.

Exercice N°2 - Faites une comparaison en utilisant l'adjectif ou l'adverbe entre parenthèses au comparatif ou superlatif :

1. Tina is 35, Sarah is 30. (old)
→ Tina is older than Sarah
2. Mr Simpson looks happy. Mr Flanders never smiles. (happy)
→ Mr Simpson looks happier than Mr Flanders.
3. I don't like documentaries. I prefer movies. (good)
→ Movies are better than documentaries.
4. Tom can jump 2 metres, but Kenny can only jump 1. (high)
→ Tom can jump higher than Kenny.
5. Paris is 600 km from here. Marseille is 100 km away. (far)
→ Paris further from here than Marseille.
6. I got up at 8am, but she didn't get up till 9am. (early)
→ I got up earlier than her.
7. The coat cost me 25 €. I got the pant for 20 €. (expensive)
→ The coat was more expensive than the pant.
8. Unemployment is 5% in the USA, and 12% in France. (high).
→ Unemployment is higher in France than in the USA.